Welcome to all of our new Pleasantville Community Synagogue members!

We're delighted that you have found your way to us – and us to you. To celebrate, and as a way to get to know each other better, our membership committee chair Leyla Nakisbendi and I would like to invite you to a Wine and Cheese get together at PCS, November 8 from 5:00 to 6:30 pm. We'd love to hear your impressions so far, answer any questions you may have, and to hear any thoughts you might like to share about your own hopes and dreams for the journey ahead.

But mostly this is meant as a chance to connect informally, outside of a class or service, and just enjoy each other's company. At just before 6:30 pm we'll end with a brief, five-minute ceremony called "Havdallah," which is the traditional way Shabbat concludes - with fire, wine, and sweet-smelling spices. It's quite lovely.

Who's invited: we initially meant this for the many families who have joined PCS over the past 18 months. But then we realized that there are some PCS folks who, because of scheduling conflicts in the past, never got to attend a New Member Wine and Cheese. So, for any PCS members who never got to attend, regardless of when you joined, you're invited too!

Only because it would be helpful to know how many chairs to put out - and how much wine, cheese and crackers to buy - it would be very much appreciated if you would RSVP to Marcy Gray, either by calling the synagogue office at 769-2672, or by dropping her an e-mail at mgray@shalompcs.com.

Again, we are delighted that you are here, and we look forward to seeing you and getting to know you better on this day - and over the days, weeks, and years to come.

PS: It's not too late to join our "Judaism for Non-Jews" class. The first, introductory, session was held on October 26. But the class begins in earnest on Sunday, November 2, 11:30 am to 1 pm. (By the way, in response to an oft-asked question: Yes, the class is open to Jews as well. The class - minus the interfaith discussion component to be separately scheduled - has in the past been taught as "Introduction to Judaism.") Bottom line? Come join us!

HEBREW SCHOOL HAPPENINGS

By Galit Sperling, Principal

October was a short yet busy month in the Hebrew School! Just in time for the holiday, students made decorations and ate snacks in the PCS sukkah, doing a mitzvah with a blessing for the joyous harvest festival of Sukkot. On October 23, two soldiers from the Israeli Defense Forces visited the Hebrew School students, courtesy of Tzahal Shalom of Westchester. The children loved meeting and getting to know Tamar, a paratrooper trainer, and Erez, a commander working on the Iron Dome defense system. The students asked intelligent questions and learned about what it is like to be a young Israeli adult in the armed forces today.

The Aleph-Bet Shabbaton on October 24 was a wonderful evening at which our youngest students started off the Friday night service with several of the Shabbat songs they have been learning and practicing in class. The 3rd grade (Gimel) class is next, with their first Shabbaton of the year coming up on November 21! At the Alef-Bet Shabbaton, Captain Daniel Elbo, a Brigade Medical Officer in the IDF stationed in southern Gaza, shared his incredible experiences with families and congregants after services. It has been amazing for our children to hear of the humanity with which the IDF operates, and to meet such brave, charismatic young Israelis.

On November 1, we celebrate the Bat Mitzvah of Michelle Siegel, a Madricha (teen assistant) in our Hebrew School classes for the past year and a half. Mazal Tov to Michelle and her family!

Coming Up:

Saturday morning, November 8: Family Education Shabbat (5th, 6th & 7th grade students are encouraged to attend)

Sunday, November 9: No classes (Veterans Day weekend)

Friday evening, November 21: Gimel Shabbaton

Thursday, November 27 - Sunday, November 30: No classes (Thanksgiving weekend)

Pleasantville Community Synagogue Mission Statement

Pleasantville Community Synagogue is a transdenominational, inclusive community, a spiritual home deeply rooted in Torah (study), Avodah (prayer), and Gemilut Chasadim (deeds of loving-kindness). We seek to facilitate lifelong spiritual growth by engaging each member wherever that member may be on life's journey, embracing all generations. We encourage Tikkun Middot (repair of the self) and Tikkun Olam (repair of the world) through Jewish education for all ages, social action, Ahavat Yisrael (love of Israel), and a commitment to the understanding and fulfillment of mitzvot. We are a highly participatory community which relies on the commitment of time and energy from all members and which aspires to become an integral part of each member's life and their family's lives.

“Amazing Grace” Screening at PCS – The Story of a Powerful Journey

–Ofri Felder

On October 19, a number of PCS members as well as outside guests came together to view “Amazing Grace,” an amazing film about the work of Rehabilitation Through the Arts (RTA). Rehabilitation Through the Arts is a local organization that volunteers in area prisons; it brings inmates the gift of theater as a means of self-discovery, community building and transformation. “Amazing Grace” takes place in the Bedford Hills Correction Facility, a maximum security prison for women. It chronicles the making of a musical based on the women’s writings that the women – none with theatrical backgrounds – are rehearsing. Scenes from the actual play are woven into the short film. But the main focus is the women’s journey: with the guidance of dedicated volunteers, they create a performance that is not only entertaining but also tells an important story.

It was my second time viewing the film – but it still moved, inspired and surprised me. The women prisoners in this film defy common stereotypes. Young and old, black and white, with very different shapes, they work hard to express who they are and take risks by sharing something of themselves on stage. They are articulate in confronting their shame, pain and loneliness, but they are also willing to embrace and support each other. Their performance teaches us to celebrate what it means to be human.

Anne Lloyd, a social worker from Katonah who directed the women in this performance, presented the film at PCS with a spirited and engaging Q&A following. If you are interested in learning more about the work of RTA, please visit their website at www.rta-arts.org.

PAINTING FROM THE INSIDE OUT

Guided by Eve-Marie Elkin Schaffer, LCAT, LMSW

Painting from the Inside Out uses paint as a catalyst for growth and exploration... encouraging adults and children to express spontaneously, without judgment or concern for outcome. The paintbrush is a tool; whether it is a color a dot, an outline or an image, a gesture appears from within. Spontaneity is awakened for exploration and play.

No training is involved. No skills required; just the desire to experience a sense of freedom and joy.
